

It is my understanding that LECs operate like an "essential facility". LEC's should have to accommodate other ISP firms that wish to purchase access from them. This wholesale arrangement helps stimulate competition and will benefit consumers.

Chairman Powell: Please do not give in to oligopolistic BIG BUSINESS. Market competition is good and improves customer service by providing a variety of service choices.